

A Viking Adventure - Raid Project

You are a member of a barbarian tribe called the Skywalkerians. You, along with other Vikings, will be going on a voyage of exploration and plunder! In order for this to be a successful venture, you must learn how to communicate effectively, set some goals, and figure out where you're going!

Learning to Communicate:

1. Complete the practice sheet on the Viking alphabet
2. Create a Title Page
 - a. Write your name in Runes- Get creative! Ms. Krohn the Brave
 - b. Include a personal Viking 'motto' in Runes- Example: 'Plunder or Perish!'
 - c. Illustrate your Viking self-portrait. Are you on a long boat? What are you wearing? What weapon are you carrying?

Goal Setting:

1. Complete your Personal Information Chart
 - a. Think about your short and long term goals- Use your knowledge of Vikings to make this as realistic as possible

Where You're Going:

1. Label your map
 - a. Refer to the instructions provided
2. Trace your voyage route in a bright colour on the map
 - a. This should tie in with your short and long term goals. If you say once you're done raiding you will return to your home and farm, you must show this on the map!
